Jackrabbit Software Users Group on Facebook

The Jackrabbit Software Users Group on Facebook was created to give you a place to collaborate with your peers in similar industries for all things business-related. While a lot of questions might be related to Jackrabbit, they don't have to be! Maybe you want to know:

- Do you accept online payments? How was the transition?
- What brand of tablets do you use for your staff? Are you happy with them?
- How do you use Jackrabbit's User-defined Fields?
- Do you allow makeups? If so, what is your makeup policy?

Keep in mind, this group should NOT replace our fantastic support team. For database-specific questions or when something seems "off", use the ? button in your database. With the ability to login to your database, our Support team can effectively troubleshoot and escalate if needed!

Not a member yet? Request to join the group, answer 2 brief questions, and a moderator will approve your request! Answering the questions helps us approve requests faster as this is a closed group for Jackrabbit users only.
